UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Lamalsikou Lowe,

Plaintiff

v.

Metro Police Department, et al.,

Defendants

Case No.: 2:18-cv-02134-JAD-DJA

Order Denying Motion to Stay

ECF No. 23

Pro se prisoner Lamalsikou Lowe brings this civil-rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 to redress events he alleges occurred at the Clark County Detention Center. Screening left him with Fourteenth Amendment due-process and excessive-force claims against a single Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department sergeant and yet unidentified Doe defendants, none of whom has been served. On September 31, 2020, Lowe filed a motion to stay this action because the limitations placed on prisoners at his USP facility due to COVID-19 pandemic precautions were making it difficult for him to prosecute this case.¹ Lowe has since been transferred to an FCI facility.² Because the Lowe is no longer at the facility with the limitations that formed the basis for his stay request, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Lowe's Motion to Stay [ECF No. 23] is DENIED as moot.
